HABA IS ALL ABOUT BABY AND CHILDREN

New Rattles, Blocks and Games at HABA

Skaneateles, NY (March 13, 2012) – When it comes to playthings for kids under five, there’s no shortage of products from German toy manufacturer HABA.

New products for children:

My Very First Games: Animal Upon Animal • Ages 2+ • $36

Another variation on HABA’s popular Animal Upon Animal game. Large chunky wooden game pieces in cow, pig, sheep, bunny and dog shapes make it fun for children to try to test their balancing skills with no risk of falling! This is just one game in the “My Very First Games” series designed and made specifically for the 2-year-plus age group. Children are first introduced to the concept of rolling dice, taking turns and playing a structured game together. Or, they can just pull out the pieces and play alone. A cooperative game for 1-4 players that helps kids learn how to work together.
